

Lenten Prayers

When we think about the choices we make and the things we would like to change in our lives, we can talk to God about what's on our mind. We do this when we pray.

Write a prayer for your family and friends.

